APTN reports two people have been killed and another is missing in Saskatchewan after a dangerous wildfire escaped containment on Saturday. Brent McLeod, the local news director at APTN reported the fire forced dozens of people from their homes and claimed more than 100 acres. RCMP said they became aware of a house fire in the Babine area on Saturday afternoon. "While fire crews were en route to the fire, another fire started across the road," said McLeod. The second fire forced the evacuation of an adjacent airport, where passengers were loaded onto rescue planes. A wildfire near the town of Babine near Agassiz. (APTN/Brent McLeod) A local resident has reported that 2 people have died in the town of Babine. A 23-year-old man and woman have been confirmed killed in the wildfire, according to a report from the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation. A 31-year-old man was reported missing after he was the last person to leave the house he was living in. A cause for the fire is still under investigation, but the fire is reported to be possibly started by a ground fire set by a barbecue. Passengers at a nearby airport were loaded into rescue planes after a fire forced evacuations in the area. (Brent McLeod) The fire moved to within two miles of the town of Diefenbunker, forcing the evacuation of residents. People who were evacuated are being taken to the Diefenbunker community hall. The Prime Minister's Office has confirmed that First Ministers of all 13 provinces and territories are meeting today in Ottawa to discuss how they can better combat the fires. Justin Trudeau and his provincial and territorial counterparts have been meeting in Ottawa to discuss what can be done to fight the fires. (APTN) The same fire forced firefighters to evacuate the town of St. Anne's Township,
